

FOR GENERATIONS TO COME

Rochdale's future starts with the people who care.

Rochdale has always been shaped by people who care, show up, work together, and make things happen.

For Generations To Come is bringing that energy, and helping people build positive change across the Rochdale Borough.

This ambition was sparked by Rochdale AFC's owners, the Ogden family, who hope the club can contribute to a thriving future for Rochdale. Our Future are bringing this to life.
